ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation No. Nature of Noncompliance

1. The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

On February 4, 2014, Mr. Rodriguez-Cruz was found guilty in Davidson County General Sessions Court for Reckless Driving a reduced charge from his November 9, 2013, arrest for Driving Under the Influence. He was sentenced to 6 months probation and ordered to pay $1,050 for court costs and fines.

Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

Mr Rodriguez-Cruz began supervised release on May 27, 2009. He is scheduled to terminate supervision on May 26, 2014.

A report was submitted to the Court asking for no action on November 13, 2013, to inform that Mr. Rodriguez-Cruz had been charged with Driving Under the Influence. The Court ordered no action at that time. As a result of the charge, the offender was referred for a substance abuse assessment on January 21, 2014. The probation office is awaiting the recommendation from the treatment provider.

Mr. Rodriguez-Cruz is employed in Nashville, Tennessee, and lives alone in Chapel Hill, Tennessee. The arrest in November 2013 is the only known noncompliance for the defendant while on supervised release.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

It is recommended that Mr. Rodriguez-Cruz be continued on supervised release with no further action at this time.

The U. S. Attorney's Office has been notified and concurs with this recommendation.
